MARCO BUHLMANN

With 15 years of experience as a founder and CEO, successfully exiting three companies, and being a co-inventor on several ML patents, Marco is a seasoned entrepreneur and investor.

Born, raised, and educated in Frankfurt, Germany, he has established his professional career in major tech hubs like NYC, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. Marco has focused on building B2B SaaS businesses and investing in early-stage technology companies across various industries.

Having personally benefited from his involvement with YCombinator (YCW16), Marco is passionate about supporting and mentoring other entrepreneurs. He has served as a mentor at multiple accelerators such as Alchemist Accelerator, Techstars, and Runway.

Marco co-founded CRS, a leading data platform specializing in regulated data, and served as its CEO until 2024. He continues to play a vital role as an investor and General Partner at 3cubed VC, a venture capital firm, as well as a co-founder and board member at Move37, a company focused on context-aware artificial intelligence (AI) technology.

Beyond his endeavors in the tech world, Marco is an enthusiastic sailor, pilot, and amateur lighting designer, embracing a diverse range of interests.
